Name of creator(s): Joint Board of Clinical Nursing Studies

CONTEXT

Administrative/Biographical history: The Joint Board of Clinical Nursing Studies was created as a result of the The Post-Certificate Training and Education of Nurses (1966) report. The report drew attention to the unsatisfactory nature of many of the courses available at the time. The Joint Board was set up in March 1970 with the following terms of reference: "To consider and advise on the needs of nurses and midwives for post-certificate clinical training in specialised departments of the hospital service in England and Wales and to co-ordinate and supervise the courses provided as a result of such advice". The Joint Board was dissolved in 1983 by the implementations of the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act 1979.

Title: Confederation of Health Service Employees

Short Title: COHSE

Creation date(s):

Level of description: Item

Extent: 4 items

Name of creator(s): Confederation of Health Service Employees

CONTEXT

Administrative/Biographical history: The Confederation of Health Service Employees (COHSE) was a trade union representing workers primarily in the NHS. It was founded in 1946 with the merger of the Mental Hospital and Institutional Workers Union and the Hospital and Welfare Services Union, with the aim of having one union to represent workers in the NHS on its formation. In 1993, COHSE merged with two other trade unions – NUPE (the National Union of Public Employees) and NALGO (the National Association of Local Government Officers) – to form UNISON.
